MARYLAND STATE SQUASH RACQUETS ASSOC.

Dear Squasher:

A glance back to last season provides an encouraging view. Our membership reached an all time high; the new tournament rules that were implemented proved functional; more persons participated in State tournaments than ever before; and all the tournaments were completed on time. A special "thank you" goes to Alex Sotir who had overall responsibility for the tournaments.

Some highlights of last year included an exhibition between Mo Khan and his brother, Gul. Mike Roizen was instrumental in arranging this match. Last March we saw a preview of the finals of the National Doubles as Diehl Mateer and his son, Gilbert, played Mo Heckscher and Mike Pierce in the finals of the Baltimore Invitational Doubles Tournament. The Mateers won in three games. Joe Lacy was responsible for lining up the top players for this event and we can thank him for the high caliber of competition.

We now have three national champions living in Baltimore. Mark Talbott won the Junior Boys' Nationals while Tom Schweizer and Gene O'Connor captured the National Senior Doubles crown. Our special congratulations go to these players.

In the ladies department Margaret Riehl (who is now president of the United States Women's Squash Racquets Association) and Helen Lacy coordinated the Baltimore Invitational Women's Singles tournament and produced a "dream" final. It matched the number one ranked woman player in the country - Ginny Akabane - against the number two ranked player - Goldie Edwards. Ginny won in five exciting games.

Let's turn to the present. For those members of the Association who have reached middle-aged status there will be an additional tournament this season. A rule change has specified that the Veteran and Senior Doubles be played at different times enabling those who qualify by age to participate in both.

Soaking up the action during last year's Invitational Doubles at the B.C.C. They'll be lots more good squash this season.

During the weekend of February 21-22, your Association will host the Grant-Lapham Matches. This annual tournament combines 15 singles matches and seven doubles matches between the top players from Canada and the United States. Three weeks later the MSSRA will host the Baltimore Invitational Doubles tournament which is again being held one week prior to the National doubles and will undoubtedly attract the finest players in the country to our area.

There is one notable departure this year from the format of past years. The final round matches of the MSSRA Championships will be held Saturday, January 31, rather than on a Thursday evening as has been customary. The awards presentation ceremony will be held Saturday evening at the Mount Washington Club during the annual Association party.

I am looking forward to seeing you on the court, off the court but always in good health and good spirits.

Very truly yours,
Alva P. Weaver, III
President

Coming 'round

SQUASH NOTES FROM AROUND MARYLAND

A Defense Worth Taking

With a silver trophy on the mantle and a Sunday Sun article in their scrapbooks, Tom Schweizer and Gene O'Connor, our United States Senior Doubles champs, are ready for a new season. Tommy says they are "looking forward to defending the title on March 19 in Denver, Col."

New Blood for Young Swingers

Peter Parker, who has three youngsters of his own in the Junior Squash Program, is the new director of that activity for 1975-76. Tom Reilly is stepping down to "get some new blood in here," as he puts it. Tom was a founder of the program in 1971 and has been its chief mover ever since. Congratulations on doing an excellent job for a worthwhile cause.

An Idea Worth Considering

Reflecting on junior squash in Baltimore, Tom Reilly says, "we're hoping within a year or so to begin a Baltimore Invitational Junior Squash Tournament with players from all over participating." The idea is still just that — an idea. Hope it materializes though.

Neighbors To Mix It Up

The format of the Grant-Lapham matches — 15 singles and seven doubles matches between the top U.S. and Canadian players — may produce more intense and exciting squash than any tournament that's ever been played here. Set for Baltimore, the matches will be played February 21-22.

Hey, Some New Squash Courts — Kinda

When Towson State College completes its new gym and field house next Fall, it will feature from six to eight multi-purpose courts (squash, handball, and paddleball) — not an ideal set up for squash enthusiasts but better than nothing.

Calendar Notation

National Juniors may be held in Annapolis in December, 1976.

Sorry You're Gone

We're sorry to see Dr. Mike Roizen leave the area. Mike was rated fourth in the State in singles and was the chap who arranged the Gul-Mo Khan exhibition here last year.

Ladies Day Again

The Baltimore Open Women's Singles tournament will be held here December 5-7. Nancy Miller is in charge. Top players participated last year and are expected again.

We're Two Down, Fellas

Last year's defeat in the Fitzgerald Cup left the series at 14 wins for Washington and 12 for Baltimore.

Adieu, Adieu and Farewell

We've said our formal goodbyes to John Warzycki, the squash and tennis pro at the Baltimore Country Club since 1967. John was the National Professional Squash Singles champion in 1953 and 1954. We'll miss him but are delighted that he's well situated at Merion in Philadelphia, a place rich in squash tradition.

The Home Court Advantage

Dr. Paul Deitz and his wife, Kay, have been doing a great recruiting job for the Association. They own a squash court in Bel Air and have enlisted a group of 10 to 15 interested men and women players. Many of these have now become MSSRA members.

He's Taking Our Trophies

Diehl Mateer's victory in the Baltimore Invitational Doubles last March (with son, Gil) gave him six of our titles. Not a bad effort considering there have only been 16 of these tournaments held. Jim Zug and Ralph Howe each have been winners here three times.

Golden Age Club

What do Gordie Howe, Diehl Mateer and Sam Snead have in common? That's easy. They all seem ageless.

Diehl Mateer has a lock on our Invitational Doubles tournament. One reason may be that he does everything right when he hits the ball.

Give Someone Else a Chance, Joe

Speaking of having a lock on a tournament: When Joe Lacy teamed with Scott Ryan last year to capture the Maryland Club doubles Championship over Sandy Martin and John McCall, it gave Joe eight titles in the past ten years in that event.

Maryland Club Champs

Here are some results from Maryland Club tournaments in 1974-75: Scott Ryan beat John McCall for the singles title; Ron Creamer won the B's over Tim Schweitzer; Tom Reilly beat Peter Van Dyke for the C; and John "Butch" West took the D's over C. Klingelhofer. We told you about Lacy-Ryan. In B Doubles, Bob Kent and Tim Schweitzer beat John Beatson and Peter Van Dyke.

Tops at the Racquet Club — Henseforth

We got an excellent report on Racquet Club tournaments from Jim Hense. It's reprinted here in full.

Member - Guest

Jim Hense and Joe Lacy defeated David Talbott and Jack Bandiers in the finals, 10-15, 17-14, 15-9, and 15-5. The Hense-Lacy tandem defeated John Menton and Mickey Webster in their half of the semi's (3-1) while the Talbott-Bandiere team upset last year's winners, Gene O'Connor and A. C. Hubbard, in five highly contested games in the other bracket.

Club Doubles

Jim Hense and David Talbott defeated Bob Voelkel and Gene O'Connor, 15-9, 15-11, 15-10. Hense-Talbott beat John Minkowski and Pete Wolff in their semi's (3-0) while the Voelkel-O'Connor team defeated Has Franklin and John Menton in four close games.

Singles Ladder

David Talbott remained in the number one position on the Club Singles Ladder throughout the year receiving mild competition from Gene O'Connor Peter Wolff, John Minkowski and Jim Hense. Mr. Talbott is in a class by himself. He played in various tournaments throughout the country such as Woodruff-Nee Invitation Singles (Washington) and Holt-Bullington Invitation Singles (Richmond) making excellent showings.

Mixed Doubles

Players from both the Racquet Club and the Baltimore Country Club were paired for this fun-filled tournament. The number one seeded team of Nancy Miller and David Talbott defeated Helen Lacy and Jim Hense in the finals, 15-13, 14-16, 9-15, 18-17, and 15-11. The Miller-Talbott team defeated a strong husband-wife team, Stephanie and Tom Biddison, in their half of the semi's (3-0). In the other half, the Lacy-Hense tandem had difficulty beating Mary Brooks and Alex Sotir in five close games.

Special congratulations to Homer Schwartz, Mark Talbott, John Menton, Alex Sotir, Pickett Riehl, Bob Pfaff and Barry Freedlander, (team captain), for bringing the Racquet Club its third consecutive Inter-club league championship. Stiff competition came from both the Maryland Club and The Johns Hopkins University.

MOST OF THE TITLES RECORDED IN THIS BOOK WERE WON WITH BANCROFT RACQUETS.

More squash players play with Bancroft Racquets than any other racquet. So not only did the winners use our racquets, the people they beat were probably using them too.

Tournament Rules

Directors have again been designated for each of the MSSRA's 1975-76 tournaments, according to John Beatson, tournament chairman. This system was initiated last season. Did it work? Every tournament ended on schedule. That's your answer.

The second vice president of the MSSRA shall serve as chairman of the Tournament Committee and shall appoint a director who shall be responsible for running the particular tournament he or she has been assigned in accordance with the published tournament schedule.

All matches — with no exceptions — shall be played by the time specified on the draw sheet.

Sign-up sheets shall be posted two weeks prior to the start of a tournament. Draw sheets shall be posted three days prior to the start of a tournament. Sign-up and draw sheets shall be posted at the Baltimore Country Club. The Johns Hopkins University, the Maryland Club, the Racquet Club and the Towson YMCA.

No person may enter a tournament unless he is a paid member of the Maryland State Squash Racquets Association.

All matches will be played in the greater Baltimore area unless otherwise mutually agreed upon.

The top man in each individual pairing is responsible for the time and place of the match and also for meeting the draw sheet deadlines.

Winners of each match must report scores to the tournament director immediately following each match.

The official ball to be used will be listed on the draw sheet, but another ball may be used if mutually agreed upon.

The tournament director will referee the final match but there will be no referees for other rounds unless specifically requested and agreed upon by the tournament director.

Attire shall be white.

Subject to the above local rules, all matches shall be played in accordance with the rules of squash as promulgated by the United States Squash Racquets Association and published in its last annual yearbook.

Defaults will be strictly enforced for the violation of any of the above rules. So observe the rules, play your matches on time — and, most of all, enjoy yourself.

Women's Squash

Women's squash in Maryland and the surrounding areas is growing more popular and more intense each year. Here's a brief review of what the girls did during the 1974-75 season and what's expected this year.

A Look Back . . .

- Five teams participated in inter-club singles with the Racquet Club #1 team capturing the title from the Baltimore Country Club's #1 team by one match.

- The top three women squash players in the country participated in the Baltimore Open held in December (Ginny Akabane, of Rochester, ranked 1; Goldie Edwards of Pittsburgh, number 2; and Barbara Maltby, of Philadelphia, number 3). The seeding proved accurate as Ginny edged Goldie in a five-game final.

- Two Baltimore teams of five players each visited New Haven for the inter-city Howe Cup matches in February. Our B team lost its division by one match while the C team lost by only two matches.

- Nancy Miller had a terrific year. She won the State singles, the State doubles with Mary Brooks and the Mixed Doubles with Dave Talbott. You can't get much better than that!

- With the help of Jim Hense, Nancy Miller also started a junior girl's squash clinic which ran for 12 weeks and attracted about a dozen girls. In the season-ending tournament Jesse Wittich captured the A Flight (plus the Girl's Achievement Award) while Ann Mitchell won the B Flight.

- Marge Riehl, Helen Lacy, Mary Brooks and Nancy Miller traveled out-of-state to several tournaments where they gained valuable experience playing top-flight competition.

A Look Ahead . . .

- Two additional teams are expected to join the inter-club league bringing the number of entries to seven. Hopefully the league will include some doubles play this season.

- Joyce Hogan has been instructing and coaching female students at the Johns Hopkins University who are interested in squash. Some women have been playing at a private court in Bel Air (a house addition no less) preparing for this season's play, and girls from Goucher College have also taken up the game.

- Margaret Riehl has stepped down as Maryland district president for women's squash — and for a good reason. She is the new president of the United States Women's Squash Racquets Association. If you know Marge, you know the USWSRA couldn't have made a better choice.

- Lynn Unger is the new Maryland district president and Helen Lacy is chairman of the USWSRA Ranking Committee while Mary Brooks is chairman of the inter-city Howe Cup matches this year, a task calling for scheduling 17 teams in three divisions.

Our thanks to the many men who have worked with us and assisted us by refereeing, judging and supporting our tournaments.

Junior Squash

Boy and Girl Programs Now

Operating; Reilly Steps Down

As we begin a new season, the Association's Junior Squash Program can look back to a successful 1974-75 campaign. The accomplishments of the program last year included the formation of the first Girls' Squash Clinic and the performances of Mark Talbott, the United States National Boys Champion.

Tom Reilly, whose hard work and leadership led to creation of the Boys' Clinic in 1971, helped plan and organize the girls program. Nancy Miller did an outstanding job directing the Saturday morning sessions for the young ladies which were held at the Racquet Club.

A total of seven girls ranging in age from 12 to 17 showed up for the first clinic session last November. Using Hashim Khan's squash book as a guide and working under the expert instruction of Maryland Club pro, Eddie Sheaffer, the girls developed into capable players.

Jesse Wittich received the Achievement Award for her enthusiasm, cooperation and ability during the clinic. After spring vacation, the final tournament was conducted with Ann Mitchell defeating Mindy Harper in the B Flight and Jesse Wittich beating Jeanne Frank in the A Flight final which went five games.

Throughout the season, the involvement of Jim Hense added a new dimension of teaching ability, sportsmanship and good humor to the sessions.

This year's clinic will open November 1 and continue through February. Call Nancy Miller for information.

On the boys' side, David Talbott, the State singles champion, helped Eddie Sheaffer provide individualized attention during the sessions held Saturday mornings at the Maryland Club.

Although the primary aim of the clinic is to offer quality instruction and impart a sense of sportsmanship to the boys, it is with pride that we note here the achievement of Mark Talbott.

The 1974-75 Boys National champion, Mark represents much of what is important about this game. A fine competitor with great determination and talent, Mark has been a good friend to us all. We regret that he is now living in Atlanta, Georgia because we'll miss him.

Tom Scruggs, Pat Miller, Jeff Kelz and Bobby Unger — all fine youngsters — should be cited for achievement in their respective divisions.

Finally, we must recognize the person who has been the backbone of our efforts from the beginning. That is Eddie Shaeffer. In addition to providing a positive playing environment down to the last detail, he has made numerous gifts to the program at his own expense.

I will miss everyone associated with our program, but it is essential that we inject new faces and fresh ideas into this area. It is my privilege to inform you that Peter Parker will be our new coordinator of Junior Activities. — Tom Reilly
