The 1976-77 Maryland squash yearbook is published by the Maryland State Squash Racquets Association - October, 1976. This book is a corporate effort by Maryland squash players who are interested in promoting the enjoyment and growth of the game. The Editor particularly wishes to thank those individuals who assisted in these efforts: the club representatives, Midge Menton for her careful record keeping, Bob Hicks for his aggressive pursuit of commercial support together with his help in proofreading, Paul Ellis for the cover and commercial art work, and finally, those twenty "friends of squash" (see the President's letter which follows) for their special assistance. MARYLAND STATE SQUASH RACQUETS ASSOC.

Dear Squasher:

I believe it especially appropriate to mention at this time, the beginning of my term in office, what I feel should be the basic thrust of our Maryland State Squash Racquets Association. My perception of the game and my reason for being involved in it is totally motivated by my desire to compete and exercise in a healthy environment with friends and acquaintances who share a somewhat mutual concern.

The MSSRA is committed to support the Parent National Organization, and I feel this is appropriate. But what I hope I can do in my tenure is meet the needs of the State Association so that our local members enjoy playing the game of squash racquets even more than they have in the past.

I am hopeful that this goal can be achieved in an atmosphere of friendship and cooperation and that we keep uppermost in our minds the fact that those people trying to organize tournaments, run the interclub, sell tickets, officiate matches, sell ads for the yearbook and at least one hundred other odd jobs, are people just like you and me, who are doing what they are doing for nothing more than their love of the game.

I'm sure in future months, the elected and appointed members of the Association may move in a direction that you question, or not act as quickly as you would like. I suggest to you enthusiastically, let us know about it. Call me up or drop me a line and make your suggestions. I can't promise miracles, but we will try our best to be reflective of your wishes or give you our reasons for failing to do so.

The game is played to enjoy. Your officers want you to enjoy it and the Association to its fullest. Let's try to work together!

I would be remiss if I did not mention in closing the first step taken in the direction of cooperation and support. When I took over the Association last spring, it was evident that our financial resources had been depleted to a rather restrictive low. I spoke to a "friend of squash" about this matter and he talked to twenty other squash players who were kind enough to donate $100 each to our treasury. To those twenty persons I send my public thanks from the Association. I want this first act of generosity to be the signal for renewed cooperation and friendship within our organization.

I hope you all have an enjoyable year on and off the squash court.

Sincerely yours,

ALEXANDER SOTIR

SQUASH from around MARYLAND

THE BALTIMORE COUNTRY CLUB by Al Weaver

The Baltimore Country Club congratulates Haswell Franklin who, in 1976, regained his title as "club champion" in an exciting win over Joe Fitzpatrick.

Special congratulations belong to young 16-year-old Patrick Miller who not only won the State "D" Championship but also our club "C" and "B" championships.

THE DEITZ SQUASH CLUB by Kay Deitz

The Deitz Club, located near Bel Air, Maryland, divides its year into three seasons. Each season ends with a tournament and a social event for its 60 year-round members. Last Fall's 70+ tournament, which ended in November, was won by Jim McCaslin with Mike Inlow as a finalist. The Saturday Night finals were followed immediately by a dance party held in the soft-pink-lit court. The hard ball tournament in March was narrowly won by Boo Smith, with Mike Inlow again the finalist. Mike was ahead 2-0 when Boo won the third game in a tense 5-point overtime. Boo won the next two games to take this exciting match. The English ball tournament, which ended the April-to-mid-July season, was won by Jeff Taylor with a score of 3-1 over Bob Gibbons. This tournament was celebrated with a swimming-bar-be-que party at the home of Don and Brenda McCaughey. Ninety persons, players and their families, swam, ate and relaxed from one to nine pm on a hot July afternoon.

Our tournaments are open to men and women. All players are encouraged to enter. First-round losers enter a consolation flight. The Bata Shoe Company supported our Summer tournament by awarding their John Wooden and PolyMatch shoes to our three winners.

Most of our players were new to squash when we opened our court in January, 1975, but we now have about 15 players who are entering state competition this year. We have about 20 women and 40 men playing year-round. Our top men players are Bob Gibbons, Mike Inlow, Boo Smith and Jeff Taylor.

JOHNS HOPKINS UNIVERSITY by Bob Hogan

The actual game of squash doesn't change much at Hopkins. What does change is the pathology of the players. At one end of the ladder you have Bob Hogan perseverating over David Stam's consistent four wall boast ending in a nick and John Russell-Wood having a go at it before tea. The mid-ladder rivalries are as predictable as the rising sun. Steve Roth, in the most profound statement of his squash career, concluded that he held the precise formula for losing to Mo Bessman. Larry Graves is successfully keeping score with a pencil; now Jim Goodyear is confused. Louis (the hammer) Galambos has perfected the Hungarian reverse corner and is in the process of describing its theory and mechanics to Joyce Hogan and Bob Tucker. On his first attempt with the new stroke, Bob was heard saying in his prolific way, "Oh, Tuck, Tuck." At the other end of the ladder, the occupants are the women's undergraduate squash team. The top player in this group is Beth Yanowitz, who represented Baltimore women in a number of city events. With the emergence of this last group, squash progress at Hopkins has halted with all the players trying to regress to the bottom of the ladder.

THE MARYLAND CLUB by John Menton

Tournaments at the Maryland Club ran well into the late spring as 120 players engaged in regular play throughout the season.

In the A Singles, Bill Rice captured his third Club Championship in the last four years, but not before spotting Sandy Martin a two-game lead and numerous match points. The scores were 11-15, 12-15, 18-17, 17-14, and 17-14. In the semis, Bill defeated John MacColl, while Sandy was beating A.C. Hubbard by identical 3-0 scores.

The Club Championship Doubles saw the "Hall of Fame" team of Joe and Jim Lacy score a popular 3-1 upset win over the considerably younger Scott Ryan and Sandy Martin. In the semifinals, Joe and Jim took John MacColl and Frank Riggs 3-0, while Sandy and Scott were eliminating A. C. Hubbard and Bill Rice 3-0. This was, incidentally, Joe's eighth Club Championship in the last nine seasons.

In the B Singles, Jervy Finney solved the rather unusual game plan of fellow law man Peter Parker to score a 15-14, 14-15, 15-11, 15-14 win. Ron Creamer lost in the semis to Jervis 3-0, with Bud McNicholas bowing in the other half to Peter 3-0.

SQUASH IS A GAME FOR TWO PEOPLE - - -

Jervis teamed with Bob Voelkel in the B-Doubles to score a 3-2 win over John Beatson and Tom Greene in a match that covered over two hours and featured "action" both on and off the court. In one of the top matches of this tournament Beatson-Greene beat Charlie Fenwick and Tim Schweizer 3-2 in the semis, while the veteran team of Sam Silber and Bruce Wilson lost 3-2 to the champs in the other half.

Bud Mc Nicholas scored a convincing 3-0 win over George Beall in the C Singles. Bud beat Dick Dunn 3-1 in the semis and George took Gary Wilson 3-1.

In the C Doubles, Tom Reilly and Bill Mitch defeated Gordon Priest and Rick Hook in a 3-0 match. Gordon and Rick had upset top seeds Lee Marston and McNicholas 3-1 in the semis, as Mary Trott-Peter Van Dyke lost to Tom and Bill in the other half.

The D Singles produced some new faces as Gene Waldron defeated Peter Schweizer 17-16, 11-15, 15-11, 15-12, for the championship. Gene topped John Morton 3-2, while Peter was edging Lou Manzo 3-2.

Eddie Sheaffer did his usual outstanding job of arranging matches, teaching squash (and golf) and keeping everyone on his toes, while Charlie and George kept things rolling in the background. We all owe a vote of thanks to these three for their good spirits and hard work.

THE RACQUET CLUB by Margaret Riehl

The Racquet Club has continued in its unique way to serve the squash community of Baltimore. The Racquet Club members make available their time and the use of their courts to improve and encourage the growth of squash.

The State "A" Singles tournament was won by Dave Talbott this year. The Maryland State "B" Tournament title was captured by another Racquet Club member, Jim Hense. Nancy Miller was a finalist in the Maryland State Womens Championship and also was ranked tenth nationally, a first for a Marylander. Bob Hicks and Alex Sotir lost to Sandy Groff and John Minkowski, all Racquet Club members in the State "B" finals.

SQUASH IS A GAME OF THE FUTURE - - -

The Mens Interclub team did not fare too well this year, but look out teams, next year we will be strong.

Nancy Miller worked with the junior girls on Saturday mornings. We hope this program will continue. Thanks Nancy; we hope more people will be willing to give their time and talents to develop good young players.

Because of circumstances beyond our control, our leaders' efforts to have a more active 75-76 season were stifled. The only club tournament held was the Racquet Club Doubles Tournament won by Alex Sotir and John Riehl.

The season 1976-77 will provide a chance for all members to partake in various activities. The National Mixed Doubles and the Baltimore Open will be held at the Racquet Club and the Baltimore Country Club. We plan to hold several club tournaments also. Many of the State Tournament matches will be played here.

THE TOWSON Y by Jim Tillman

Tournament activity at the Y this past season slowed down to nothing, but the overall activity increased as more members picked up the game. The demand for court time has increased considerably and both courts are usually scheduled for a week in advance. This summer the courts were cleaned and painted and are now in excellent condition for the start of the 76/77 season.

WOMEN'S SQUASH by Joyce Hogan

The Maryland state women initiated the 1975-76 tournament season by hosting the annual Baltimore Open Tournament in which thirty out-of-town and local players participated. The field included six of the top ten nationally ranked players and some excellent quarter-final and semi-final matches resulted. In the final round match, Barbara Maltby required a mere twenty minutes to eliminate Ginny Akabane with scores of 15-3, 15-3, and 15-9.

The January season for women's squash in Maryland holds two major events. First, the Maryland state women's singles tournament conducted over a three week period resulted in semi-final play with Nancy Miller vs. Helen Lacy and Joyce Hogan vs. Nancy Taylor. In the final match, Joyce Hogan upset the title defender, Nancy Miller, in an exciting and well played match 15-4, 15-11, 9-15, and 15-12. The second event, held the last week in January, brought two five-player teams to New Haven, Conn. for participation in the annual Howe Cup Intercity Matches. Although Baltimore does not enter an "A" team, both the "B" and "C" teams represented the city well. The "C" team, whose members included Mary Brooks, Sita Culman, Carla Fox, Bunny Kelz, and Beth Yanowitz, were just edged by Boston on the final day of play for the cup. The "B" team consisting of Anne Monahan, Joyce Hogan, Nancy Miller, Helen Lacy, and Nancy Taylor impressively won nineteen out of twenty matches to capture the "B" cup.

The 1976 National Singles Championships, conducted by the USWSRA and sponsored by Bancroft, were held in Philadelphia immediately prior to the USSRA national tournaments. Joyce Hogan and Nancy Miller were selected to represent Maryland in the thirty-two person draw. The last Maryland representative to be invited to the national tournament was Mary Brooks, who participated several years ago. Nancy Miller's performance at the Nationals plus her outstanding tournament play this year has earned her the tenth-ranked national position in the women's standings. Nancy's well deserved ranking makes her the first active player from Maryland to be nationally ranked.

With the heavy competition out of the way, the first "Mixed-Up" doubles tournament was held. Headed up by Ouisie Weadock, the team of Has Franklin and Betty Karukas defeated Don Townsend and Nancy Miller in the finals. More impressively, however, a special "boobie" prize was awarded to Eric Schmidt who arranged for three different partners during the entire tournament. That does raise some speculation.

During the first part of April, a seven player team traveled to Arlington, Va. to play the Washingtonians in what is hoped to be an annual event similar to the Fitzgerald Cup; Baltimore won the tournament 5-4, by clinching the final match of the day. Winners for Baltimore were Dinny Bradley, Helen Lacy, Brenda McCaughey, Ouisie Weadock, and Beth Yanowitz.

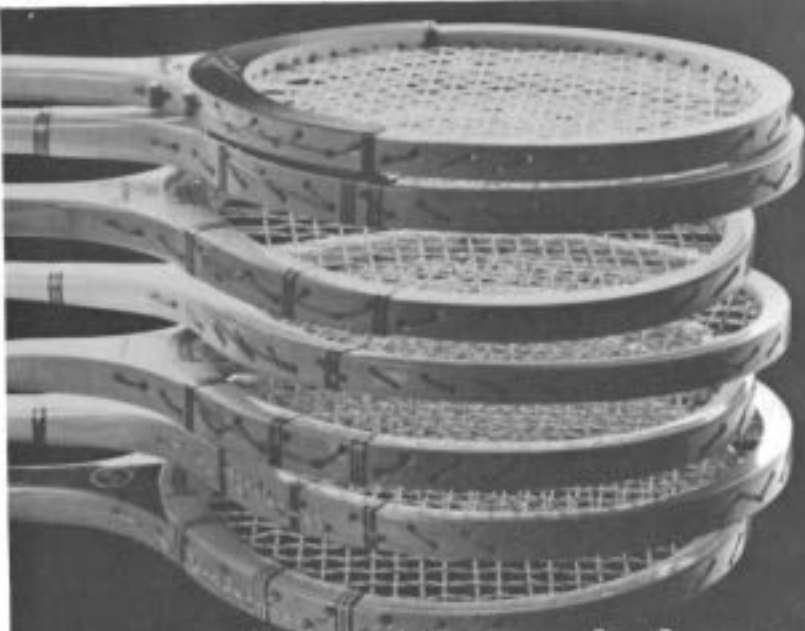

Women's squash in Maryland is not confined to the Baltimore area — ask anyone in Bel Air. The Deitz Squash Club is used regularly by approximately twenty-five women players. This club highlights a number of tournaments and competitive ladders for either men and women or both. At this point (Bel Air knows no squash season), the top players at the Deitz's court are Nancy Taylor, Kay Deitz, Barbara Pekala, Sandy Nolan, and Betty Karakus.

The ladies interclub competition was restructured this year to include six teams of four players each. The restructure was an attempt to provide adequate competition at each level on every team. While this was accomplished, the traditional club rivalry was sacrificed. A reevaluation is needed in attempting to resolve this dilemma.

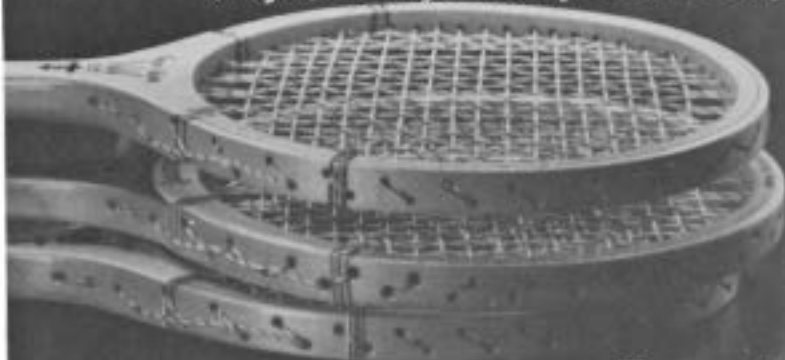

Special thanks and recognition are in order for Marge Riehl, who has undertaken the overwhelming task of President of the USWSRA for two years; to Helen Lacy, who is the chairperson of the national ranking committee; to Mary Brooks, who has so ably and successfully served as chairperson of the Howe Cup Intercity Matches for the past two years; and to Nancy Miller, who patiently instructed the junior girls program for the last two years.

THE LAPHAM-GRANT MATCHES by Tom Schweizer

The Lapham Cup-Grant Trophy international squash matches between the United States and Canada were held in Baltimore last February for the first time since 1936. This annual combination singles and doubles competition dates back to 1922, and traditionally is played at alternating sites between the two countries. Old Timers Bill Lamble and Tommy Schweizer were co-chairmen for the event and along with their committee were responsible for a weekend of good times and warm friendship with our friends from Canada and United States players from all over the country. Other local competitors were Sandy Martin, Dave Talbott, Jim Lacy, Frank Riggs, Sam Silber, Al Weaver, Jimmy Hense, and Haswell Franklin. The U.S. won the singles 11-4, and Canada won the doubles 4-3. How friendly can you be?!!!

TOURNAMENT RULES

Directors have again been designated for each of the MSSRA's 1976-77 tournaments. According to the MSSRA Constitution, the second vice president of the MSSRA this year, James Goodyear, shall serve as chairman of the Tournament Committee and shall appoint a director who shall be responsible for running the particular tournament he or she has been assigned in accordance with the published tournament schedule.

All matches - with no exceptions - shall be played by the time specified on the draw sheet.

Sign-up sheets shall be posted two weeks prior to the start of a tournament. Draw sheets shall be posted three days prior to the start of a tournament. Sign-up and draw sheets shall be posted at the Baltimore Country Club, the Deitz Squash Club, the Johns Hopkins University, the Maryland Club, the Racquet Club and the Towson YMCA.

No person may enter a tournament unless he is a paid member of the Maryland State Squash Racquets Association.

All matches will be played in the greater Baltimore area unless otherwise mutually agreed upon.

The top man in each individual pairing is responsible for the time and place of the match and also for meeting the draw sheet deadlines.

Winners of each match must report scores to the tournament director immediately following each match.

The official ball to be used will be listed on the draw sheet, but another ball may be used if mutually agreed upon.

The tournament director will provide a referee for the final-round play. He will also provide a referee for any preceding rounds at the request of either player.

Attire shall be white or pastel.

Subject to the above local rules, all matches shall be played in accordance with the rules of squash as promulgated by the United States Squash Racquets Association and published in its latest annual yearbook.

Defaults will be strictly enforced for the violation of any of the above rules. So observe the rules, play your matches on time - and, most of all, enjoy yourself.
