MARYLAND STATE SQUASH RACQUETS ASSOCIATION

August 24, 1979

Dear Fellow Squasher,

Last year saw the beginning of what your state officers hope will be a resurgence of squash in our area. Through a great deal of hard work by our tournament chairman Paul Dietz and his individual chairman, we were able to play our tournaments using the weekend format. The weekend tournaments were one of our main goals for this year and, we think we proved it is the best way to run a tournament. Not only did we go to the weekend idea, but we had more tournaments which we thought would give members more opportunities to compete. We hope this increase in the number of tournaments will make your membership more meaningful and encourage more people to join the M.S.S.R.A.

This year's Invitational Doubles Tournament added a singles draw also and this added attraction seemed to be very popular with all the badge holders. My sincere appreciation for a terrific job goes to the Chairman John Menton who put many hours into getting this tournament organized. John retired this year as Treasurer of the State Squash Association, and again I would like to thank him for all his work at that time consuming job.

Going into the second year of my term, I have several goals I would like to reach. First I would like to increase the membership in the M.S.S.R.A. I know there are many people who are playing squash in this area who are not members of the Association. We have tried very hard to make membership in the M.S.S.R.A. more appealing by increasing the number of tournaments and prizes for our readers. Please pass the word on to any squash non-members that there are benefits in belonging to the Maryland State Squash Association including good fellowship.

My second goal is to build up the Baltimore Invitational Singles and Doubles Tournament attendance to what it was years ago. I think this tournament offers spectators a rare opportunity to see the best squash being played in this country in both singles and doubles.

My third goal is to organize an effective Junior program for the children of members to get more young people interested in playing squash. Randy Torr is working very hard to get this program going and would welcome any help or suggestion you care to give him.

The Executive Committee is always on the lookout for people interested in working on our committees. If you have any suggestions or want to help, please let me or one of the other members know.

I wish you all a successful squash season.

Sincerely yours,

BOB BATES
PRESIDENT, M.S.S.R.A.

August 20, 1979

Dear Squash Players:

This spring marked the end of a rather radical year for Maryland squash. The 78-79 season saw a dramatic increase in the number of activities available for Maryland squash players from essentially one tournament for each competitive level, singles and doubles, to five or six tournaments for the singles player and two for the doubles enthusiast. The Baltimore Women's Open and the Baltimore Invitation Tournaments remained as show cases for great squash. Accompanying the increase to numbers of tournaments have been the number of squash participants and hours of tournament play. Those of us on the Maryland State Squash Racquets Executive Committee responsible for our programs think that this increased activity is good for us, good for the game and great fun for the players.

It has been noted frequently in our periodic news letters and we mention here again that without the participation and support of our local clubs in making available court time for these tournaments, there would be no program. Each of you who enjoys the benefits of organized squash should be aware of this and make your support known to the representative at your club who periodically makes your courts available for state activities.

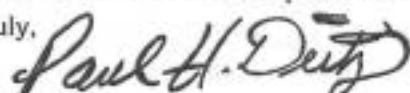

This coming year will in large part be a repeat of the events scheduled last year. There is no increase in tournament activity. With an event scheduled approximately every month during the winter season together with a summer season of English squash, we feel that we have achieved a reasonable base level of activity. In this new season, we hope to improve on the quality of our events. You will find the 79-80 schedule of events elsewhere in these pages. One change you will note is the establishment of a racquet fee for all non-state championship tournaments. The establishment of this fee in lieu of a dues increase was deemed an equitable solution to balance the treasurer at the expense of those benefiting most from the increase in playing activity. The Executive Committee has also established as a policy that all flights of state activity are open to men and women alike and that all tournaments, save the Maryland State Championships, are open to professionals and our squash-playing friends outside our state borders.

As you peruse the pages of this yearbook, we hope it will assist you in planning a full season of squash activity and enjoyment. If you have suggestions for ways of improving our programs, policies, or scheduling, don't hesitate to contact me. In addition, if you would like to assist us in implementing our programs, we would love to hear from you.

Here's to a full and active squash season.

Very truly,

PAUL H. DEITZ

BALTIMORE

COUNTRY CLUB by Joseph (Sammy) Fitzpatrick

The winner boards at the Baltimore Country Club will see a lot of new names this coming winter, because of the best squash year in recent history. There were many more younger faces and more interest in the game this past year than ever before.

The traditional member-guest tournament had the largest draw in recent memory, due to the younger members getting involved in the doubles game. Since we instituted three flights to give the novice doubles players to compete, we had 42 teams within the three flights.

The winners in the "B" flight were Gordon Gilbert and Dave Williams who defeated Jim Stieff and Dave Vanwagonburg 3-0.

In the "A" flight David Warfield and Rich Thomas defeated Bernie McCrory and John Riehl 3-1.

The championship flight was won by Joe Fitzpatrick and Jimmy Lacy III. (who filled in back-attack victim Jim Hense) and defeated the veteran team of Jack Bandiere and Bob Hogan 3-0.

A note must be made here that in the championship consolations, two old quarterbacks, hung in for an hour to win. Bob Williams, affectionary known as number 9 out of Notre Dame and Chicago and Tom Greene out of Holy Cross beat John Voneiff and Tom Reilly 3-2.

The cocktails and dinner that followed, was by far the highlight of the final weekend, equipped with a slide show and some of the most ribald comments of the year, Joe Harlan put on a show that will long be remembered not only by the participants and wives, but also the dining room help and various platform tennis players who survived that evening.

Turning to other annual club events. The club "C" singles was contested by two of Baltimore's finest barrister's, IF YOU TALK TO THEM — Tom Biddison physically beat Joe Harlan 3-1.

The club "C" doubles was won by David Warfield and Bryan Chasney who defeated Digger Krebbs and Helen Lacy 3-2. When last seen Digger was trying to show Helen some of the moves, whether it was squash or another activity, you will have to talk to Digger!!

The club "B" singles was won by Bob Travers, who defeated our in-house emcee and great barrister, (if you talk to him) Joe Harlan 3-1.

In the club "B" doubles we are still searching for the participants, I guess they heard they were getting pewter and not silver!

The club doubles championship saw the underdog team of Jim Goodyear and John Vonelff knock off the No. 1 seeded team of Joe Lacy and that famous pot-hunter Bob Hicks in routs to the finals, where they defeated George Boynton and Al Weaver 3-2 in a very tight match.

The club singles championship also saw some old talent in the finals, since Pat Miller packed his bags for college and Haswell Franklin was shelved for a bad right wing, the last we saw of Haswell he was playing left-handed against a bunch of broads and trying to hustle them whether in squash or something else, we don't know. The perennial runner-up for three years Joe Fitzpatrick defeated George Boynton 3-0, both agreed if it went another game, they would have to call for oxygen and stretchers, since they were both in tip-top shape in mid June, the last time George and Joe were seen was on the first tee of the east course hooking and slicing their way to the ladies tees.

We cannot talk about the squash season at B.C.C. this year, without mentioning the outstanding job done by Omar Sharif (Alias) John Garcia. He kept the activity booming by hanging matches, and dispensing some fatherly advice, and did a super job for the committee, not only in the members-guests but also the Baltimore invitational.

We wish you good squash and good luck for the oncoming season or as Joe Lacy profoundly says "hang-in!"

DEITZ SQUASH CLUB by Kay Deitz

This season celebrates our almost five years operating our single court in Bel Air. We average 50 players year round—40% women—and currently 17 are MSSRA members. Most state tournaments this past year had one of our players in final rounds of the B, C and D flights.

Our club's Fall Blue Dot tournament saw Bob Everd win 3/0 over Linda Denton. Our Winter 70+ tournament in March (with B ladder ineligible to play) had exciting final rounds with Bill Bruchey defeating Linda Denton 15-9 in the fifth game. Linda fed into the lower flight and defeated Bob Harner 3-0 which put her back against Bruchey in the finals. She defeated him 3-1. Since both players had now lost once, a finals replay was scheduled. The long awaited finals— Bruchey had sustained and recovered from an injury in the meantime— saw Ms. Denton take Bill apart for the second time 3-1 to confirm her win. An upset in the tournament was D player Tom Dietrich's win over C player Darryl Palmer. Of the upset Palmer said, "He could do no wrong."

Our Spring Club tournament (B ladder eligible) saw Bob Everd win over Bob Harner 3-1, Everd not losing a game through out the competition. Sandy Nolan defeated Chris Adam 3-2 in the consolation. Chris Adam, a C player in Toronto who recently moved to Belcamp, was down two games which at the beginning of the third game he asked, "How many games do I have to win?" Kay Deitz, scorekeeper, answered, "If you're going to win, you'd better start now." Adam went on to win the third and fourth games but Ms. Nolan managed to take the fifth and the consolation flight. "The first time I've ever won a prize in squash, except for winning a squash ball," said Sandy. Her time is definitely here.

Our Insilco competition with 16 club entrants saw Mike Inlow handily defeat Bob Everd in 3 games. Mike went on to Washington D.C.

In State competition Mike Inlow was a three-time finalist in C competition: in the Md. State C championship, the Fall 70+ tournament, and in the Baltimore City singles tournament. Kay Deitz was finalist in the women's division of the 70+ tournament and the Baltimore City singles. Boo Smith was semi-finalist in the State C's.

The 1979 Summer Ball tournament, with finals held at our club, saw three of our players in the A/B class, Paul Deitz, Smith and Inlow. Smith reached the semis of the consolation flight. Congratulations to Bob Everd for this year's outstanding success in squash. After winning the Maryland State D class, Everd went on to the C/D finals of the English tournament defeating Bob Travers 9-6 in the fifth game of the grueling 75 minute match, but losing in the finals to top seed Ron Attanasiou.

Paul Deitz was a semi-finalist in the Fall 70+ tournament and semi-finalist in the State B singles. With Jim Tillman he was finalist in the State B Doubles tournament.

Our club's WE TRY HARDER award unanimously goes to Anne Frezell who keeps us all on our toes with her friendly drawl, "I'd like to challenge you to a game. What time is most convenient for you?" Keep it up, Annel!"

Thanks this year to Priscilla Corbett for getting our women together with her elegant holiday luncheon in January.

What do you do when you've just about got the match sewn up and your opponent asks if you'd like to put a case of beer on the outcome? Well, Libby Brooks took up Army pilot Tom Frézell's offer. "I had him," she said but went on to lose the match and the beer . . .

WHO'S DEDICATED DEPT.: Roger Rice and Bob Harner for playing all Winter from 8 to 9am in 40 degree temperatures. Bob Harner for taking a shower afterwards in our unheated bathroom. "It's brisk." And for Roger returning home to a 2 mile run around the neighborhood.

DOWNTOWN RACQUET CLUB by Tommy Schweizer

Our squash program has been fairly limited with only two singles courts and a lack of proper instruction. However with Eddie Sheaffer now on hand we have already experienced an increase in activity.

Needless to say the M.S.S.R.A. will always be very high on my list of favorite organizations and I hope that we can help with both State and National tournaments. Without sounding commercial and with a sincere intent to promote the game we would be more than willing to work out competition membership deals for any M.S.S.R.A. players who do not have courts available to them on a regular basis. We have particularly attractive facilities for ladies. Margaret Riehl held one of her top tournaments at our place last year and I believe players and spectators all enjoyed themselves.

Come down and see us or give us a call. We will be more than happy to arrange a match for you. We are fond of our Club, and want very much to help promote squash in Maryland!

JOHNS HOPKINS WOMEN'S VARSITY SQUASH TEAM by Toby Gordon

Not to be outdone by the spectacular Hopkins men's lacrosse team, the Lady Jays stroked their way to a 7-1 season record, earning 8th place national ranking overall. Seniors Beth Yanowitz, Kate Foster, Barb Chang and Captain Nancy Tang (Captain Tang-aroo) formed the nucleus of the varsity team with tight racquet work and swift footwork. They amazed and demolished opponents, scarcely losing a game in intercollegiate dual matches. The seniors were backed up by amazing performances from freshman Nunzie Gould, sophomore Lizz Cianos and Junior Lisa Gottesfeld. The team overwhelmed their opponents, not just by their playing ability, but by their size. At the Howe Cup tournament at Yale, Hopkins achieved notoriety for being the shortest and thus the best team per inch; there was a movement underfoot to change their team name from Johns Hopkins to Johns Munchkins. The University of Pennsylvania proved to be the nemesis of the Munchkins and two class losses, Howe Cup by one point and 5-2 intercollegiately, were recorded. coach Toby Gordon, Penn alumna and graduate student at Hopkins School of Public Health was anxious to beat Penn, but this feat was accomplished by outranking the Quakers rather than in head on competition. Next year will be a development year for the team, with a tougher schedule to play and the loss of five of seven to seven players. Young talent abounds and the increasing strength of the women's athletic programs under the direction of Micul Morse is creating a stir at Newton White Athletic Center other than the sound of lacrosse trophies piling up in the showcase.

MARYLAND CLUB by John Menton

Squash at the Maryland Club was highlighted by the April 6th Retirement Party for the irreplaceable Eddie Shaeffer which occasioned a turnout of nearly 200 members, wives and friends of the "Pro" on his last night. The dinner was held in conjunction with the Club Doubles Final and Sandy Martin teamed with his "old" partner Joe Lacy to defeat A. C. Hubbard and John MacColl 3-0. In the semis Sandy and Joe beat John Menton and Jim Lacy III, while A.C. and John handled Jim Lacy, Jr. and Tommy Schweizer.

Sandy Martin also took the A-Singles title over A.C. Hubbard 3-0, as well as the Handicap tournament played in early fall of '78 over Bill Rice 3-1.

In the B's, the Singles Title went to fast improving Dan Dent 3-1 over John Menton, and in the closest tournament match of the year the Doubles Championship was won by Jack Fetting and Tim Schweizer in a 3-2 nail-bite over Gordon Jones and Dick Britt. It was a unanimous decision that "Diamond" Fetting take a few days off after several tough matches on the way to the championship, including a 3-2 over Bill Mitch and Tom Reilly in the semis. Jones and Britt defeated John Beatson and Bill Tanton 3-0 in the other half.

C-Singles went to Jay Wilson by a 3-1 count over Lee Marston, who had edged Bill Mitch 3-2 in the semi-final while Jay eliminated John Morton in the other half. Lee Marston however did share the C-Doubles title with Bob Kent defeating Gordon Priest and Bill Tanton 3-1 in the finals.

The ever popular and highly coveted D-Singles title this year went to Peter Gerard by a narrow 3-2 over Bill Rienhoff. He also had a 3-2 win over Lou Manzo in the semis, while Bill defeated Ned Dukehart 3-1.

The locker room staff of George and Charles are helping indoctrinate new pro Frank Cushman who is already hard at work at this writing. A final note of thanks to Eddie Schaeffer for all he did over the years for squash at the Maryland Club is in order. Best wishes to you Eddie and your family.

THE RACQUET CLUB by Jim McCaslin

The Racquet Club distinguished itself again this year with many its members gaining national as well as local acclaim. We consider the level of squash played at the Racquet Club to be high caliber, and are especially proud of our players who have earned national ranking. Nancy Taylor is ranked 3rd in the Women's "B", Denise Galambos is ranked 5th in junior girls; Peter Wolff ranked 11th in veterans (40+); and Joyce Hogan ranked 14th in the Women's Division. Murray Gillman won the "C" Consolation in the national Insilco B/C Championship and Joyce and Bob Hogan, although not given national ranking, won the respect of the national doubles circuit by distinguishing themselves in the national mixed doubles tournament.

The Racquet Club also sponsored three club tournaments this year. The Insilco "C" Tournament was won by Murray Gilman who went on to win the regional "C" championship. The Club Doubles Tournament featured three separate events — Sadie Hawkins Mixed Doubles, B Doubles, and A Doubles. Margaret Riehl and Jim Tillman defeated Carlisle Voekel and John Riehl to win the Mixed Doubles event (3-0). Linda Denton and Mary McGuirk overcame a late charge by Denise Galambos and Toby Gordon to win the B Doubles event (3-1). In the A Doubles event John Riehl and Alex Sotir outstaidied the perennial runners-up Jim Tilman and Peter Wolff to win 3-0. A handicap tournament was also sponsored this year for the very first time with John Minkowski defeating Murray Gilman in the finals (3-0).

On the local scene the Racquet Club numerically dominated MSSRA tournaments. Of the 295 players participating in our tournaments, the Racquet Club accounted for 104 for a 35% rate of participation. Mike Dunn won the English Ball B/C Flight. Bob Hogan won the 70+ Blue Dot B Flight and Jim Hense won the A Flight in an all Balacynwyd Club Final against 4 ranked junior from Balacynwyd, Penna. Jim also teamed with John Menton to win the fall doubles open.

In the MSSRA State Championships, the Racquet Club placed five finalists in the singles competition; Don Townsend in the D Flight and Bob Hogan and Jim McCaslin in the "B" Flight; and Joyce Hogan and Mary McGuirk in the Women's Flight. In the doubles competition we placed 1.5 teams in the finals — John Riehl and Alex Sotir and Jim Tillman and Paul Deitz (obviously from the Deitz Squash Club) in the B Flight.

In regional play the Racquet Club again fielded an A and B team in the Naval Academy Invitational. In the Virginia State Open Joyce Hogan was very busy winning the Women's Open over another Racquet clubber Nancy Taylor and teamed with Bob Hogan to win the mixed doubles event. In the Insilco B/C Regional Tournament, Murray Gillman won the "C" division and Ray Blank lost in the semi-finals in the "B" division. John Minkowski, Paul Ellis, Jim McCaslin and Bob Hogan of Racquet Club teamed up with Ted Berger of Annapolis and Bob Hicks of the Baltimore Country Club to form the Baltimore entry in the annual Boar's Head Tournament, Charlottesville, Virginia. The Baltimore team won the tournament handily and looks forward to defending its title this year.

The Racquet Club women are determined to put Maryland on the squash map despite the mediocre play of the men. In the Philadelphia Slazenger Open, Linda Denton won the Women's "C" Flight over Denise Galambos and Nancy Taylor reached the semi-finals in the Women's "B". In the Manheim Challenge Nancy Taylor was a winner with Linda Denton reaching the semi-finals. In the Howe Cup Competition, four Racquet Club women (Linda Denton, Mary McGuirk, Margaret Riehl, Nancy Taylor) teamed with Helen Lacy to place second in the "B" division while three of our ladies (Denise Galambos, Toby Gordon, and Lori Steiff) teamed with Candy Neville and Susan Reed to place second in the "C" division. Rumor has it that our women have made Gene O'Connor an honorary member of the Racquet Club Ladies Players Association!

Who would have believed that disco mania would strike the squash community! Yes, the Racquet Club has been painted in a smashing array of psychedelic colors and the lights flash on and off during play.

Last year it was reported that "75% of the lights were operational in the singles courts while 96% of the lights on the doubles court were operational!" Considerable progress was made this year and I am pleased to report that 100% of the lights on the doubles court are working and, as soon as our guest fees are paid, the lights in the singles' courts will again be lit.

BALTIMORE INVITATIONAL TOURNAMENT by John Menton

For many years the finest caliber of Squash presented in Baltimore has annually been the Baltimore Invitational Doubles Tournament usually held in March. This year for the first time the program moved to January and a Singles draw was included.

The results were an artistic success. The Singles draw which featured some real "Ironman" acts as players doubled up to play in both the Singles and Doubles draw saw the 6th Panked U.S. player Tom Poor of Boston beat his fellow New Englander Ron Beck (ranked #8) in 4 superbly played games.

After the traditional Sunday brunch break the Doubles final featured the 1976 National Champions from Philadelphia. Mike Pierce and Mo Heckscher, who are now both playing professionally, at the top of their games winning in 3 over local favorite Sandy Martin and Tom Poor, who are currently ranked #3 nationally.

Saturday nights disco party featured some memorable performances by the locals as well as the visitors, but a sensational "gator" exhibition by Peggy Senft was national caliber for sure. With a return next year to the traditional March date, we can only hope for the same high caliber of play, a repeat of this year's social aspects and a much needed increase in financial support to this fine event.

INSILCO 1978-79 by Scott Jordan

Last season, in its second year, the Insilco National B/C Tournament doubled its participation from 2000 to over 4000 players. Locally in the MSSRA we happily followed the national trend increasing our participants from 35 the first year to 75 in 1978-79.

Those 75 players represented 5 club; 10 in the B division, and 65 in the C division. In addition, for the second consecutive year the MSSRA was represented in the national finals in New York. This year we were represented by Murray Gilman of the Racquet Club. Although Murray lost in the first round (to the eventual winner), he promptly soothed his wounds by winning the consolations in a convincing manner.

For the coming season we are again hopeful of doubling our participation in this event. The Insilco Tournament is truly one of the "best buys" in the competition market. Your two dollar entry fee covers your entrance up to and including the national finals. In addition all participants receive tournament "T" shirts; all club winners receive engraved silver trays; and should you be fortunate and talented enough to make it to the national finals, your trip and all expenses are paid for by the USSRA. All this combines to make one of the best offers since 30¢ gasoline.

This year I am very fortunate to have the assistance of two dedicated players, Murray Gilman and Bob Everd, in organizing the registration and play of this tournament in the MSSRA. With their help and your participation the 1979-80 Insilco National B/C Tournament should easily be the highlight of the Baltimore Squash Season.

The following players were winners of the Club Tournaments—
Ray Blank — MSSRA "B"
Murray Gilman — Racquet Club "C"
Dave Warfield — BCC "C"
Alan Acton — Johns Hopkins "C"
Ron Atlasio — Downtown Racquet Club "C"
Mike Inlow — Deitz Club

NATIONAL NOTABLES by Peter Wolff

Although the USSRA map does not center on Maryland, it certainly provides a prominent location. Our women have distinguished themselves under the leadership of Marge Riehl, who successfully merged the USWSRA into the USSRA during her presidency of the former. For tournament results see "Women's Squash" on page 00.

Upon losing National Junior Champ, Mark Talbott to brother David in Detroit we gained Hopkins student Arshad Malik from Palsistan, who was a finalist in the Virginia and Mercersburg Acadamey Junior Tourneys, winner of the National Capitol and excellent performer in the National Junior Tournament at Providence (won by Talbott). Denise Galaubos achieved a #5 ranking in the U.S. by her outstanding play in several tournaments including a quarter final match in the National Juniors with #2 ranked finalist Nince Porter of Wilmington.

Maryland's sons played squash throughout the U.S. and Canada needing only a representative at the Mexican Singles to complete a sweep of North America (in participation, that is!) With the likes of Minkowski, Ellis, Rice, Hense, Hogan, Martin, Hicks, Menton, Jensen, Gilman, Taylor, O'Connor, Attanasio, Steinmann, and Wolff traveling variously from coast to coast, the search for triumph led to such tournaments as the Slagenger Summper Open (Phila. - Sept.); National Singles (Portland - Feb.); National Doubles (N.Y. - Mar.); INSILCO Nationals B/C (N.Y. - Mar.); Boodles Open (N.Y. - Apr.). The glorious victories (and a few close losses) are too numerous to review, but a few of the accomplishments are:

SANDY MARTIN— after second place finish in the Canadian Championship, earned #3 ranking in U.S. with partner Tom Poor of Boston by reaching semi-finals of the National Doubles.

BOB HICKS— and partner Art Sicular of N.Y.C. were bypassed at nationals in a narrow victory by last year's National Senior Doubles Champs, Graves and Dann of Bullalo. Bob also led a team to victory in the annual singles/doubles event at Boar's Head, Charlottesville, Va.

MURRAY GILMAN— won his club tournament and the regional qualifier in D.C., then lost to the ultimate champion in N.Y.C., but was winner of the National INSILCO "C" Consolation.

MALCOLM JENSEN— needed 50 points to win three straight second round games in the national Singles 40+ event, then in the quarterfinal met #2 Nationally Ranked Bob Benvin of N.Y.C. who won in four. This and other sanctioned play earned Malcolm a #10 ranking in 40 Vets.

PETER WOLFF— in his first round match at the Portland tourney lost in four to defending U.S. champ, George Morfitt of Vancouver, B.C. Having lost in four to Canadian champion, Gerry Shugar at Rochester in January, Peter needed only to have played Mexican champ, Raul Sanchez to complete the tour, but was in the opposite bracket at the Canadian championships. Nevertheless, Wolf achieved a National Ranking of #11 in Vets behind Jensen.

NAVY TEAM— again used their depth and superior conditioning under new coach Bob Bayliss to be ranked in top five intercollegiately.

JIM HENSE— teamed with Scott Ryan, and Dave Page to help them win the 3 man "A" league title in Philadelphia. He also participated in the Gold Racquets and Holt Bulington Tournaments before his "back turned on him". This year he will be Chairman of the National Juniors for the third time in four years.

1979-80 should bring even more participation by Marylanders with the National Juniors planned at Penn., the National Singles at Princeton, and the national doubles at Wilmington. The singles sites will have play in Men's and Women's events on the same dates. Maryland's own Invitation Singles and Doubles will be sanctioned by the USSRA in 1980 and should attract more stars from "the tour" as well as top local talent.

THE U.S. NAVAL ACADEMY by Bob Bayliss

The Twenty-sixth Annual Class "A" Invitational five man team tournament was held at the Naval Field House on Thanksgiving weekend. A hungry team from Schuylkill Squash Club in Philadelphia went on to defeat the U.S. Naval Faculty four matches to one in the finals.

Earlier that day the Philly-boys defeated the varsity squash team five matches straight, while the faculty edged the Baltimore Racquet Club team three matches to two, with the final game going to John Rogers 18-17 over the Racquet Club's Scott Jordan.

Teams came from York, Lancaster, Wash. D.C., Virginia and New York to participate. Members of the winning team were 1—Scott Ryan, 2—Howard Day, 3—Jim Hense, 4—Andy Nehbras, 5—Tom Page (playing left handed, due to injury)

WOMEN'S SQUASH by Linda Denton

This year's Baltimore Open National Women's Squash Tournament was truly a national event. Thirty-six entrants representing geographic areas new to women's squash as well as those from the traditional "East Coast" centers certainly "Squashed The Rumor". A total of $625 in prize money was offered in addition to prizes and trophies. Funds were raised through the generous donations of several anonymous friends of squash and the prizes, trophies, and tee-shirts were donated by local businesses. As spectators literally hung from the rafters at the Downtown Racquet Club, Barbara Maltby once again breezed through the competition. Defeating Goldie Edwards in 3 straight games in the finals, Barbara continued to make it look easy! Ginny Akabane captured third place as she topped Lisa Drake in the third/fourth play-off competition. With a repeat performance, heartbreak hotel guest Connie Pierce managed to thrill the crowd in a well-played, come-from-behind, five-game defeat of Carol Weymuller to take the feed-in consolation title.

"Have Squash Racquet — Will Travel" must have been the theme behind this year's squash season for Maryland women. And travel they did — quite successfully as some of the tournament results from far and near will attest.

Philadelphia Slazenger 70+ Tournament— Women's B Flight semi-finalist — Nancy Taylor; Women's C Flight winner — Linda Denton, semi-finalist — Denise Galambos.

Manheim Challenge Philadelphia District B winner— Nancy Taylor, semi-finalist — Linda Denton.

Virginia State Squash Championships (Charlottesville) winner— Joyce Hogan, finalist — Nancy Taylor.

National Capital Squash Racquets Championship (Washington, D.C.) winner— Nancy Taylor, finalist — Linda Denton, 3rd place — Mary McGuirk, 4th place — Sally Shelburne.

National B Championship (Indianapolis) — 3rd place — Nancy Taylor.

Boodles Gin Squash Tournament (New York) — Women's B Flight winner — Linda Denton, finalist — Nancy Taylor; Women's C Flight finalist — Laura Stieff.

Ushered in by an all-day snow storm, the annual Maryland State Squash Championship Tournament was held the weekend of January 12-14. As expected Joyce Hogan, the #1 seed, coasted through the competition never losing a game; however, such was not the case in the other rounds as unseeded Mary McGuirk upset the #3 and #2 seeds in her bid for the finals. In the third/fourth play-off competition, third place went to Nancy Taylor with her 3-0 defeat of Linda Denton.

Two doubles tournaments were held this year — one in October and the annual Maryland State Doubles Championships in March. Joyce Hogan and Denise Galambos victories in their bid against finalists Mary McGuirk and Linda Denton in the fall tournament and Joyce, teamed with Margaret Riehl, bested the team of Nancy Taylor and Helen Lacy in the finals of the Maryland State Doubles Competition in March.

Washington hosted the fourth annual Stevens Cup in March and, for the first time in the history of the competition, took home the honors. Dominating the competition, Washington scored an impressive 6 to 3 upset. Important wins for the Washington team came from Rosemay Braddon, Pat McQuethy, Candy Neville, and Cassie Fisher.

Deserted by super-ace Joyce Hogan, who was off to play A-1 for the Western team, Baltimore managed to field only two teams for the Howe Cup Intercity competition. But what a great showing they made! Baltimore's B team composed of Mary McGuirk, Nancy Taylor, Linda Denton, Helen Lacy, and Margaret Riehl finished second to New York by the narrowest of margins— one match. The C team, composed of rookies, Denise Galambos, Susie Reed, Toby Gordon, Candy Neville, and Laura Stieff, held out until the last day of competition before falling to a more experienced New York team by a score of 4-1.

Increased participation by Maryland women was promoted this year by several factors: an increased number of tournaments, the weekend format, and the better communication of the squash community both at the state and national levels. Maryland women are looking forward to an equally successful season in 1979-80.

A NEW PROFESSIONAL IN TOWN by Jim Hense,

We would like to take this opportunity to Welcome Frank Cushman the new professional at the Maryland Club. Frank came to us upon David Talbots recommendation and is doing an excellent job from all reports. He learned Squash at an early age and played at Amhurst College. He has had years of experience in teaching and working with the various Associations in his previous cities of employment mainly Detroit, and New York City.

We consider him a plus for our organization and he is looking forward to improving our Junior development program which will be run at Towson State University this fall. We wish him many successful seasons of Squash in the Baltimore area. Good Luck!
