A 90% graphite/10% boron midsize frame, the BORON DOMINATOR combines the strength and light weight of boron with continuous fiber unidirectional graphite surrounding our patented foam core. The result is a stiff, remarkably powerful frame. Comes with a full thermal cover.

COMPOSITE DOMINATOR

An 80% graphite/20% fiberglass midsize frame, the COMPOSITE DOMINATOR combines continuous fiber unidirectional graphite with continuous fiber fiberglass surrounding our patented foam core. The result is a powerful yet forgiving frame with exceptional control and touch. Comes with a full thermal cover.

POWER DOMINATOR

An Alcoa 7046, high-performance, aluminum midsize frame, the POWER DOMINATOR provides the durability of aluminum with the vibration dampening benefits of our unique graphite-reinforced fiberglass throatpiece. A light, strong weapon with quick maneuverability.

Pro-Kennex developed its reputation by being the largest manufacturer of racquets in the world and by specializing in graphite technology.

In developing the DOMINATOR series of midsize squash racquets, Pro-Kennex has used its patented, state-of-the-art foam core technology to build high-performance and durable graphite frames with aerodynamics achievable only with a foam core. In addition, Pro-Kennex engineers designed the DOMINATORS with a headlight philosophy to provide more headspeed with less effort. This great balance combines with weight specifications to make the racquets durable but light enough for great feel.

The design and engineering of the DOMINATORS can help you play better. Ask your local dealer about our frames. You will see them on the pro tour, at the amateur tournaments, on the college circuit and at the clubs—don't just play squash this year, squash your competition with a Pro-Kennex DOMINATOR!

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

A hard act to follow. That's how I describe the two-year administration of Bob Hicks, and here are just a few reasons why: significant increases in membership and tournament participation, the first National Soft Ball Championships, two outstanding Baltimore Invitational Doubles, National Women's B and C Singles, incorporation of the Association, the first Invitational Seniors/Masters Doubles, and computerization of our record-keeping system.

Your Board of Directors plans to build on this successful record with an ambitious slate of activity for the 1984-85 season. We have launched a reconstructed juniors program with professional instruction. As a part of our plan to recruit more members from the ranks of those new to squash, we have introduced a novice-only tournament to the schedule. We have arranged commercial sponsorship for our State A singles championship. Continuing the sound financial management of our predecessors, dues will remain at last year's levels. We hope to attain tax-exempt status.

Many thanks go to all of the dedicated people who have made Maryland squash a proud tradition, and I welcome the enthusiastic support of old friends and new who have committed their ideas and energies to our Association.

CLUB REPORTS

ABERDEEN PROVING GROUND

Paul Ellis reports that there is not much activity on the two courts at the Aberdeen Proving Ground up Route 95. He plays there as do Bill Bruchey "and about three C players." The courts are open to members of the military (active duty or retired) and civilian employees and retirees. For information on the APG courts, please call Paul at 879-3011.

BALTIMORE COUNTRY CLUB

The 1983-84 season saw the club championships go to the young players who seem to thrive on the cold BCC courts.

One of our most enjoyable social events of the year is the annual Member-Guest Doubles Tournament. This year's winners were John Voneiff and Sandy Martin over Patrick Miller and John Riehl, IV.

The Bisque Handicap Tournament was once again a highlight of BCC squash. Players of all levels enter the Bisque, and are assigned handicaps by our unbiased and highly knowledgeable pro, Eddie Schaeffer. (A player may be given 0-30 handicap points to be used at the discretion of the handicapped player, at any time during a best of five match.) This year, the Bisque finalists were Patrick Miller and Barbara Clements. Miller won it in a very close 3-2 match.

All of the BCC players thank Bob Hicks for his very successful tenure as Squash Committee Chairman, and welcome the new Chairman, Joe Harlan, an enthusiastic player and squash booster. We are looking forward to a good season, complete with heat! As usual, Coach Eddie Schaeffer will be around to heckle and help us all.

THE COLUMBIA ATHLETIC CLUB

by Thomas E.B. Marty

The Columbia Athletic Club has two air conditioned squash courts for year-round squash enthusiasts.

During the winter, organized squash activities include ladder competition, club tournaments, the INSILCO national tournament, and three squash teams which are entered in the NCSRA (National Capital Squash Rackets Association) league in the greater Washington area. Players for the five-man teams are selected weekly based on the ladder. When demand warrants, a professional squash coach is available for lessons.

During the summer, most players switch to the English ball. For those desiring additional competition, the Club fields two teams in the English ball summer league also sponsored by the NCSRA.

This past summer witnessed the demise of our doubles squash court, sacrificed to make room for more weight lifting and exercise equipment and an additional Aerobex room. Members took the loss well, intensifying their singles competition and lobbying efforts to make all weight rooms and racquetball courts eligible for matching federal funds for conversions into squash courts. We wish them luck as we pound away here at the Columbia Athletic Club.

THE DENTON A. COOLEY CENTER

by Toby Gordon

Wielding beepers and squash racquets, members of The Johns Hopkins medical community enjoyed another year of play at the Cooley Center. Medical student Nick Suite, winner of the Cooley Center Insilco tournament, went on to win the National Consolation D finals. The Cooley Center's City Club league team of Jim Campbell, Dave Echelman, Ben Knox, Rich Moxon, and Stu Selonick prevailed for the second year in a row, earning the title of Baltimore Inter-Club Co-Champions. Other tournament victories for Cooley Center squashers included Stu Selonick's win in the Baltimore C Softball Championship in 1984, and Jim Campbell's win in the D tournament in 1983. Other active Cooley Center players were Steve Bolling, Gihan Tennekoon, Jim Porterfield, Sukon Kanchanaraksa, Toby Gordon, Paul Murray, Sally Naish, Dan Hanley, Tom Blanck, Rob Shapiro and Rodney Owens. Nancy Cushman offered lessons at the Center, adding new players to the growing roster.

Interested players can call 955-2513 for information. Membership is open to JHMI faculty, staff and students.

THE DOWNTOWN ATHLETIC CLUB

Again this year, the Downtown Athletic Club hosted the Baltimore's Best 70+ Blue Dot Tournament, enjoyed by players from all over the city. Winners were: A flight, David Dickieson; B flight, John Riehl, IV; C flight, Bruce Preston; D & Women's flight, Craig Merrill.

In addition, the DAC fielded a team in the MSSRA Interclub League. Participants included Lee Stierhoff, Roger Frisky, David McNally, Jim Shuth, Harrell Copeland and Jim Marshall. Many of the same players made regular appearances at the Saturday morning round robin which became something of an institution during this lively season at the DAC.

THE HARFORD COUNTY TENNIS CLUB

Ever since Mary McGuirk bought the Harford County Tennis Club, stories have been circulating about the addition of squash courts. The stories were true.

The Club now boasts two brand new, glass-backed courts complete with a lounge area for spectators. The courts have wood floors, and the walls are of Desco cinderblock construction with a plaster/epoxy/fiberglass surface. Owner-Manager Mary plans on running a Club ladder, participating in INSILCO, and donating court time for MSSRA tournaments.

All squashers are invited to investigate the new facilities. From Baltimore, take I-95 north to the Bel Air/Edgewood exit, turn left on Rt. 24 and proceed 3.1 miles and take a left onto Old Emmorton Road. It's 2213 Old Emmorton, and Mary says you can't miss it.

THE JOHNS HOPKINS UNIVERSITY

by Kay Fowler

Activity on the five courts at The Johns Hopkins University centers around the women's intercollegiate squash team. This past year the women compiled a 6-7 season record behind first year coach, Jim Goodyear (that's Jim Goodyear the history Ph.D. candidate, not the other Jim Goodyear playing squash at BCC). The local opponents for JHU are Franklin & Marshall and Swarthmore College.

Hopkins periodically sponsors a team in the winter league, and always produces a large D draw in the Insilco Tournament.

The squash players here dream of the addition of racquetball courts onto the Newton H. White Athletic Center so the racquetballers will get off the squash courts!

THE MARYLAND CLUB

by Sandy Martin

Another tremendous year of growth for squash at the Maryland Club, now boasting over 200 members. Under the fine leadership of Pro Frank Cushman, play at all levels continued to be keen, intense, and sometimes even exciting!

Once again, Maryland Club members did extremely well in state and national tournaments. Most notable was Tommy Schweizer who teamed with Newt Meade of Philadelphia to win the Masters Division (60+) at the United States National Doubles held in Denver, Colorado in March. Also, Jervy Finney and Al Weaver are to be congratulated for being finalists in the Seniors Division for the second straight year. On the local level, Sandy Martin captured the State A Singles crown for the fourth consecutive year.

THE RACQUET CLUB

by Nancy Dunn

The Racquet Club continued its long squash tradition. It hosted matches for many tournaments, including the National Soft Ball Championships, the Baltimore City Open, the Maryland States, and the Baltimore Women's C. Wednesday nights were dedicated to interclub play. Members playing on the team included John Riehl, IV, Steve Kelly, Matt Polk, Kay Fowler, J.L. Coale, Laurie Stieff and Leigh Costikyan.

Racquet Club members did very well in national championship play. In the first ever National Soft Ball Championships, Gene O'Connor was a finalist in the 55+ division, and Nunzie Gould and Nancy Dunn won the Women's B's and C's, respectively. In the 70+ Nationals, Laurie Stieff placed 4th in the Women's B's, Nancy Dunn was a finalist in the Women's C's, and Margaret Goldsborough placed 6th in the Women's C's.

Many Racquet Club members also made strong showings in local tournament play. Winners and finalists included: John Riehl, IV, finalist in the Maryland Soft Ball B; Margaret Goldsborough, finalist in the Soft Ball Women's; Mike Riehl and Pat Miller, winners of the C Fall Doubles; Mike Riehl, winner of the Baltimore City Open C's; John Riehl, IV, winner and Steve Kelly, Finalist in the 70+ Fall B's; Nancy Cushman, winner and Laurie Stieff, finalist in the Maryland State Women's division; and Margaret Goldsborough, winner of the Baltimore Women's C.

The courts were very busy all last year, as indicated by the successful tournament play of so many members. But, a lot of people must have taken a break from squash for one reason or another, because the courts became very quiet this summer. Now that the 70+ season is upon us, get ready for another fun year playing squash at the Racquet Club.

TOWSON CENTER AT TOWSON STATE UNIVERSITY

by Kerry Tenberg

During the last year, the quality and quantity of squash at the Towson Club have continued to improve. The many new faces are those of new players as well as experienced players from other local clubs. The facility is attractive because of low rates, good availability and maintenance of courts, and the wide variety of squash activities. TC has hosted local and regional tournaments, has a junior program, a team in the interclub league, and was the site of the soft ball interclub league.

All of the above has added up to better squash. Evidence in support of this point is that more Towson players are making it to the advanced rounds in local tournaments.

One of the highlights this season was the Interclub Soft Ball Competition. It gave local players the opportunity to compete informally with squashers from other clubs. All who participated had a great time. We hope to have a similar activity next summer.

Many thanks to the TC administrators for their support in helping to promote the game of squash in Baltimore. See you at the Towson Center.

THE UNITED STATES NAVAL ACADEMY

by David Brown, Head Coach

The Navy squash team is coming off one of its most successful seasons ever—a 15-3 mark which equalled the most wins in a season. The team achieved a co-ranking of third nationally, and received the Barnaby Award as the most improved team in the country.

The 1984-85 Navy team has accepted the challenge of duplicating or even surpassing the accomplishments of last year's squad. With ten returning players, including both a first team and a second team All-American, two fine plebe prospects, and a couple of j.v.'s moving up to the varsity roster, the talent is present. Couple this talent with hard work, a good attitude and a little luck, the opportunity for another banner season is present.

For a copy of our 1984-85 schedule or information on exhibition matches, please call the team offices at 267-2381 or 267-2992.

THE UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND AT BALTIMORE

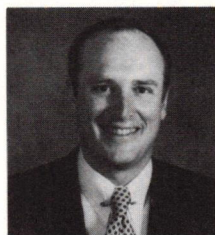

The University of Maryland at Baltimore has two seriously under-used singles courts at its downtown campus, according to Mike Markell. The courts at 646 West Pratt Street are available for the use of UMAB students. Memberships are also available for faculty, staff and alumni.

THE CHAMP, JOE LACY & HIS WIFE, HELEN. This year Joe made Maryland State squash history, winning the A, the Veteran, and the Senior State Doubles Championships.

MY FRIEND JOE

by Tommy Schweizer

What do Jack Miller, Jim Lacy, Jr., Sandy Martin, Jim Lacy, III, John MacCall and Skippy all have in common?

Each of them has won the Maryland State Doubles Championship with Joe Lacy.

Now some of the purists might question Skippy the chimpanzee who showed up at a surprise 40th birthday party for Joe, and who, while circulating among the guests on his roller skates, thoroughly enjoyed the buffet at the BCC—especially the fruit. Oh yes, he did carry a squash racquet with him at all times, even while shaking hands. I figure at that stage in Joe's career, he and Skippy could easily have won the State A's!

Seriously though, Joe Lacy really does have a spectacular record on the doubles court. At the end of the 1983-84 season and still going strong at 52 years old, Joe can count 14 State wins which is only one behind Bill Lamble's 15 and ahead of brother Jim's 10 and Sandy Martin's 8. There have been many exciting victories along the way since the first one in 1963, but I would guess that the win with his nephew Jim in 1976 just had to be very special and at least rank on a par with the seven championships with brother Jim.

Joe's father was a State doubles champ, so the Lacy family can claim doubles winners through three generations!

Statistics are cold and impersonal and cannot begin to convey the heart, the stamina, and the competitive spirit that went into all these matches, but space precludes my going into too much detail. Combined with the previously mentioned State championships, the following doubles record is extremely impressive. Joe has 11 Maryland Club wins—the first one with me in 1966, and needless to say, I have not won since. Sandy Martin has 10. Joe won the State Veterans four times, the State Seniors once, and the Baltimore Senior Invitational once. The latter tournament just started last year and attracted teams from all over the U.S. and Canada. At the BCC, Joe won 8 Invitational Tournaments and 9 club championships. I have tried to pick events that have been played over a number of years and will probably continue to be played for some time to come. From 1963 through the '83-'84 season, Joe has compiled a total of 48 major wins. Not even considering the countless runner-up trophies, that sure is an awful lot of silver (pewter!) to keep clean!

I personally feel that during this past season Joe accomplished the most unbelievable feat of all. For the first time in the history of Maryland squash, a player in the same year won the A, the Veteran, and the Senior State Doubles Championships. I sincerely doubt that anyone will ever equal this record—unless, of course, Joe does it again!

No article on Joe Lacy would be complete without citing his outstanding sportsmanship. You must know that over 21 years there had to be some "tough calls," but win or lose, Joe always came off the court with the admiration and respect of his partner, and the other team as well. A super record, a truly great doubles player, and a real credit to the game of squash. That is my friend Joe.

MSSRA 1983-84 INTER-CLUB LEAGUE

by John Riehl, IV

This year's league saw several changes. Each participating team consisted of one B player, two C players, and one D player. This allowed for much more competition within each club for positions on the teams. Five teams battled over a 12-week period to become MSSRA Interclub Champions. The competing teams were Towson Center #1, Towson Center #2, Racquet Club, Downtown Athletic Club, and the Cooley Center.

The season was split into two halves, and the first half standing showed last year's champion, Cooley Center, at the top of the field. In the second half, TC #1 ran away from the pack. TC #1, by virtue of their superior record, earned the home court advantage for the title playoff against Cooley Center.

When TC #1 and Cooley Center met during the season, each home team prevailed by a score of 3-1, so a close title match was anticipated. There were no provisions in the Interclub League bylaws for tie-breaking, so naturally the two teams tied and we were left with no alternative but to declare them co-champions and look forward to next year.

THE FITZGERALD CUP

by Haswell Franklin

For many years, one of the highlights of the local squash season has been the annual Fitzgerald Cup squash match bringing together 13 of the top local players versus a like number of friendly competitors from across the Parkway in our nation's capital.

In one of the closest and hardest fought matches in memory, our Baltimore team fell this past season to our Washington neighbors by a 7-6 score.

Baltimore split the top four positions, winning at one and four with Jeff Condon and Jimmy Hense prevailing, and captured the last three spots thanks to the efforts of Gene O'Connor, George Boynton and Bob Hicks. It was in the middle of the line-up that the "good guys" came up short. Unfortunately, both Barrett Freedlander and Dave Warfield let apparent victories slip into 3-2 defeats. Rumor has it that Dave was winning four to one in set five in the final game only to lose, but no one is willing to confirm this fact including Dave.

Some consolation can be taken in the fact that a careful review of our opponents' line-up at the party that evening determined that Washington was missing the mandatory player age 55 or older and, therefore, technically lost. However, in the interest of good friendship and convinced there was no malice aforesaid, it was agreed to let the result stand, as long as yours truly could continue displaying the cup in the front hall of his home.

The party following the matches was held at the home of Barrett and Laura Freedlander, and was thoroughly enjoyed by all. Barrett went out of his way to try to make up for his upset defeat by being the best possible host, and, in this regard, he ended up a definite winner.

The overall matches now stand 21-14 in favor of our Washington rivals, but with the return of John Minkowski from Boston and another year of seasoning, we are hopeful that winning ways will return this year to this end of the Parkway.

THE STEVENS CUP

by Helen Lacy

"STEVENS CUP BACK IN BALTIMORE," read the headlines in February, 1984! After losing in 1982, and no competition in 1983, it was a sweet 6-5 Baltimore victory over Washington at the Capitol Hill Squash Club.

The team had always been 9 players, but this year's format was changed to include one A player, three B's, five C's and a new category requiring two more players in a 35+ age group, bringing the total now to 11 players. On the way over to Washington we were crying the blues because Nancy Cushman, our #1 player, couldn't be with us, so we were going into the match "down one." The day was warm and the courts were hot. The last match pitted Carlisle Voelkel Hashim against Heidi Halleck, who had beaten Carlisle in a previous tournament. The game scores ran close, but Carlisle prevailed with a 3-0 win, the deciding victory for Baltimore. Other winning members of the team were Leigh Costikyan, Barbara Clements, Carole Vannier, Helen Lacy and Joan Weyers. Playing very close matches were Laurie Stieff, Nancy Dunn, J. L. Coale and Toby Gordon.

The Stevens Cup began in 1976 to parallel the men's Fitzgerald Cup. Baltimore was victorious in the first match, 5-4. Thanks to Geff Fisher, this team competition evolved and he donated the trophy in honor of his grandmother Stevens. Many friendships have been made over the years, not only by competing but also by combining forces to play in Howe Cup matches. We missed seeing some of the "regulars" on the Washington Stevens Cup team, like Sally Shelbourne and Pat McWethy.

Congratulations to all who participated. Baltimore is still ahead in the series 5-3!

WOMEN'S SQUASH

by Laurie Stieff

Women's squash was definitely on the upswing this past season. We had a good solid group of players who participated both in Maryland and out-of-state tournaments, and several new players were active on the ladder. The highlights of the season included:

The Howe Cup in Washington D.C. Baltimore sent a full B team and a full C team for the first time ever.

The Baltimore Women's C Tournament This nationally sanctioned tournament was hosted here under the leadership of Nunzie Gould and Laurie Stieff. Baltimoreans Margaret Goldsborough and Barbara Clements were the finalists.

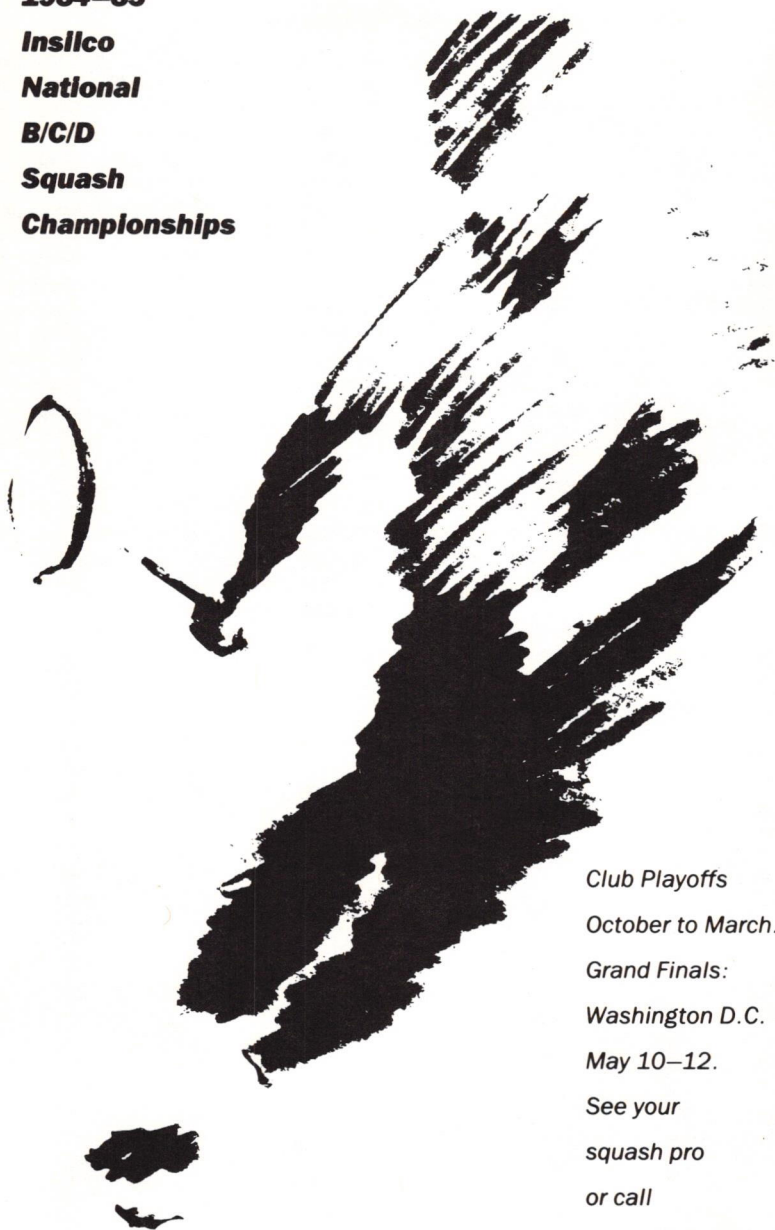

The USSRA Championships

Five local players entered the Women's C Championships held in Washington D.C.: Barbara Clements, Nancy Dunn, Margaret Goldsborough, Carlisle Hashim, and Brenda McCaughey. Nancy came home with the second place trophy; Margaret took sixth. Laurie Stieff won fourth place in the National Women's B Championships held in New York.

Women's Doubles Nancy Cushman organized two doubles clinics to prep any interested players, and consequently revived the Maryland State Women's Doubles Tournament! She attracted ten enthusiastic teams, many of them including women who were playing doubles for the first time. Laurie Stieff and Brenda McCaughey were the winners. Helen Lacy and Joan Weyers were finalists.

Nancy Cushman will be director of women's squash next season, so we're looking forward to another active and exciting year of squash.

MSSRA ENGLISH BALL CLASSIC

Jim McCaslin (right) won the English Ball Tournament in a 3-2 match over Jim Tillman.

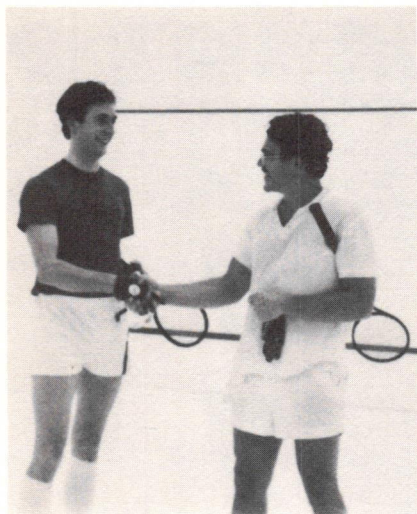

Jim McCaslin won the tournament for the third consecutive year, this time with a 3-2 victory over Jim Tillman. Finesse was the watchword of the day for both of these A players. In the B flight however, it was a power contest between John Riehl, IV and Bill Bruchey. Bruchey won it in four. Kerry Tenberg took the C flight in a three game match against his frequent opponent at Towson Center, Bill Berault. Jim Campbell won a quick 3-0 victory against Lee Stierhoff in the D's. Liz Cianos Everts, a former member of the Hopkins women's squash team, won the Women's flight in a seesaw five game match against Margaret Goldsborough. The entire tournament was staged at Towson Center on the campus of Towson State University with MSSRA's Bob Everd in command.

1983 USSRA SOFT BALL SINGLES CHAMPIONSHIP

Nunzie Gould, the first-ever USSRA Women's B Soft Ball Champ, goes to the backhand wall as Opponent Natalie Yates looks on.

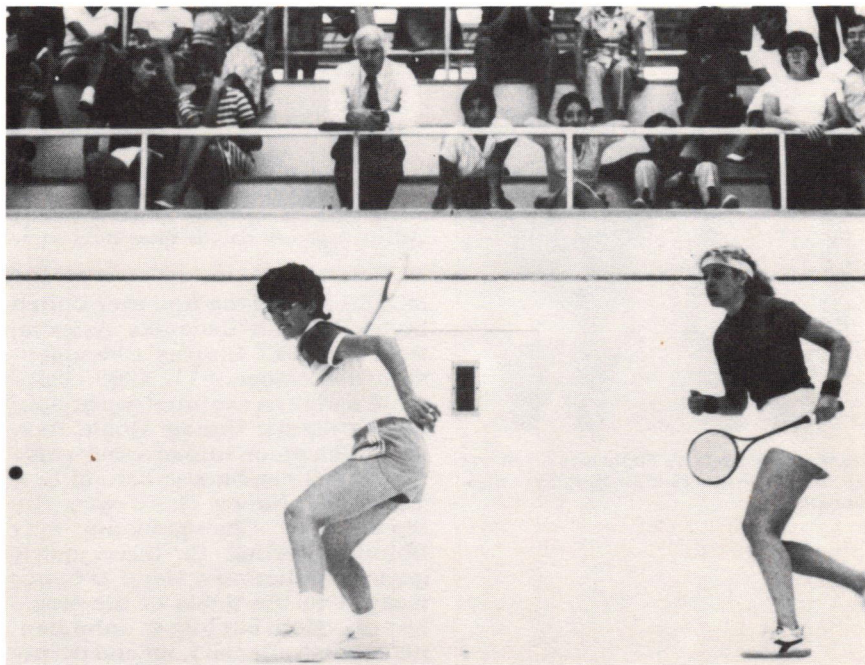

MSSRA hosted the first ever United States Squash Racquets Association Soft Ball Singles Championship September 9-11, 1983. Baltimore's women captured top honors in two flights: Nunzie Gould took the B Championship in a four-game match against Natalie Yate of New York, and Nancy Dunn won the Women's C Championship over Bonnie Sterling in three quick games. Baltimore's Gene O'Connor made it to the finals of the Men's 55+ division, but lost to John Bennett of Utah after an hour and twenty minutes of play on 90 degree courts at the Baltimore Country Club. Jim Tillman, a finalist in the Maryland State Soft Ball Championship, lasted until the semi-final round of the Men's 40+ where he lost to the eventual winner of the flight, Leonard Bernheimer of Massachusetts. It was another Maryland /Massachusetts contest in the other 40+ semi-final, where our Malcolm Jensen fell to Den Bourke in three.

The tournament drew 118 contestants. Bob Everd headed a hard-working 14-member committee to stage this show: J.L. Coale, David Echelman, Jim Eyring, Denise Galambos, Margaret Goldsborough, Nunzie Gould, Bob Hicks, Steve Kelly, Jan Markowitz, Brenda McCaughey who gets special recognition for the incredible luncheon at Towson Center, Matt Polk, Anne Steinbock, Bob Travers and Peter Wolff.

Gene O'Connor (rear) was a finalist in the Men's 55+ Division, playing against John Bennett of Utah.

MSSRA OPEN FALL DOUBLES

The headline in the sports section of the Morning Sun read:

"Millers Get Bop From Pop." Columnist Larry Harris went on to speculate that one-time Maryland doubles champ Jack Miller must have passed along all those good genes to his sons, Patrick and Michael. Pat Miller teamed up with Jim Hense to win this year's Class A Championship over Sandy Martin and Stewart Janney, and Michael Miller and his partner Michael Riehl took the C Class crown over John Bremermann and Scott Supplee. In the B flight, the Baltimore Country Club team of John Voneiff and Bob Travers came out on top in a very tough match against the June/September team of John Riehl IV and Al Weaver, the reigning National 50+ Division Doubles Champ (his partner in that earlier competition was Jervis Finney). In the Veteran's category, Peter Wolff and Jim Tillman defeated Tommy Schweizer and John Beatson. Jim Hense ran this tournament in which every one of the final matches went to five games.

MARYLAND STATE DOUBLES TOURNAMENT

The second seeded team of Joe Lacy and Sandy Martin captured the Maryland State Doubles crown in a very tense five game match over the first seeded pair, Jim Hense and Pat Miller. In the Veteran's flight, it was Lacy again, this time paired with Alex Sotir. They defeated A.C. Hubbard and Jack Leutkemeyer 3-2.

Both the B and C finals were replays of the Fall doubles—same players, same results. In the B's, John Voneiff and Bob Travers won over John Riehl, IV and Al Weaver; in the C's, it was Mike Miller and Mike Riehl over John Bremermann and Scott Supplee, 3-0.

The Women's Doubles Tournament was revived this year under a new format devised by Nancy Cushman. Each player entered the tournament individually, and was then matched with a partner. This was done to help those who had never experienced the game, and to "even out the competition." Ten teams entered the contest, but it was the team of Laurie Stieff and Brenda McCaughey that went the route to beat Joan Weyers and Helen Lacy by a score of 3-1 in the finals.

BALTIMORE'S BEST 70+ BLUE DOT TOURNAMENT

Hosted by the Downtown Athletic Club, the Baltimore's Best 70+ Blue Dot Tournament was won by David Dickieson who defeated Don Townsend, Jr. in three games. John Riehl, IV took the B flight in a 3-1 match over Steve Kelly. In the C's, it was Bruce Preston over John Bremermann, 3-2. The Women's and D flights were combined to produce a draw of 22 players. Harford County's Craig Merrill won it in a 3-2 match over third seed, Jim Campbell.

THE BALTIMORE CITY OPEN

This year's Baltimore City Open found stiff competition both on and off the courts. Off the courts, the City Open was matched against the Chivas Regal Tournament. Though this undoubtedly contributed to the smaller than expected draw, the on-court competition did not suffer. Number 2 Seed Pat Miller won the combined A/B flight in a tough 4-game match over third seeded John Minkowski.

Mike Riehl won the C division, defeating Bruce Preston 3-2. D flight winner was Michael Mitchell who took Stan Klinefelter in straight games. In a combined Men's 35+ and 40+ flight, Sandy Martin completely controlled his three game match with Jim Hense. In the 45+ category, the winner was Bruce Pearson who defeated Malcolm Jensen in a tight four game contest. Philadelphian Sandy Worthington won the Women's flight 3-1 in a very tough match over New Yorker Janet Costikyan,

BALTIMORE WOMEN'S C TOURNAMENT

The MSSRA hosted a nationally sanctioned women's C tournament over the weekend of February 17. Players travelled to Baltimore from Ohio, New York, Pennsylvania and Washington D.C., but it was two Baltimore women, Margaret Goldsborough and Barbara Clements, who met in the finals. Goldsborough won it 3-1, with each game a tie-breaker.

Joan Weyers lost the feed-in consolation finals to Elizabeth Wills of Philadelphia on a no-set tie-breaker in the fifth. The tournament was beautifully directed by Nunzie Gould, assisted by Laurie Stieff who hosted the Saturday night buffet and had something to do with the donation of engraved pewter trophies.

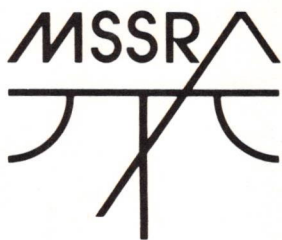

MSSRA SENIOR DOUBLES

by Tommy Schweizer

This year two very strong teams scared off all the rest of the senior combinations who usually make up a respectable draw for this venerable group.

The tournament was official with the entry of a "rabbit" (a track & field and horse racing term!) duo made up of Bobby Voelkel and Tommy Schweizer who promptly lost to both of the powers in this round-robin event. Alex Sotir and Joe Lacy, this year's State Veteran champs, beat Al Weaver and Jerry Finney, the number one ranked senior team in the U.S., 3-0 in a match which was much closer than the score indicates.

It is hoped that both of these teams will be able to play in next year's Nationals and that we can have an all Baltimore finals!

MSSRA SINGLES CHAMPIONSHIP

by Jan Markowitz

For the fourth consecutive year, Sandy Martin has proven to be the best in Maryland. So it was, on the weekend of January 2, as 78 players competed for top honors.

At first it appeared that Martin had met his match in the young and aggressive Pat Miller. But, it took Miller until game three to gain any momentum. In the first two games, Martin played effortlessly. He controlled the T and moved the ball around at will. In game 3, Miller began to control the momentum with drop shots that kept Martin from hitting his effective 3-wall shots. But, Martin was never far behind. Down 10-13, Martin gained a 14-14 tie with the help of several unforced errors. Miller, faced with a no-set or set to 3, chose the latter. Miller won the first point, but as in earlier play, Martin refused to give up and took the next three points for the match. Excellent hustle and shot selection characterized the match.

Rankings also held in the women's championship, with top seeds Nancy Cushman and Laurie Stieff paired in the finals. Having just returned to singles competition, Cushman started slowly and found herself behind 2-5 in the first game. As her shot selection improved and she controlled the T, she then out-scored Stieff 13-2 to win the opening game. The last two games followed a similar pattern. Cushman's drop shots and boasts kept Stieff constantly out of the play. In the last two games, Stieff could only once put together a rally of 4 points, as the game scores were 15-7, 7, 9.

A strong B player for the past few years, Dave Barclay had to overcome a very competitive Steve Kelly for the B championship. Both finalists entered the tournament unranked. Barclay defeated top seeded John Voneiff in the semifinals 3-2, and Kelly upset the fourth seeded Bill Bruchey by a similar score. In the first game, after opening an early 5-3 lead, Barclay made several unforced errors which Kelly took advantage of to win the first game 15-8. The next two games were close in the early going, but Barclay then opened up leads from which Kelly could not recover. The fourth game was very close, but Barclay took it and the match. Game scores were 8-15, 15-6, 15-9 and 15-13.

Nancy Cushman (right) won the Maryland State Women's Championship for the second time. (Her last win was in 1981.) Her opponent this year was Laurie Stieff.

Dave Barclay, winner of the MSSRA B Championship, takes a friendly right to the jaw from Finalist Steve Kelly.

In the C and D flights, there was tough competition which saw five of the eight seeded players upset before the semifinals.

Scott Supplee, the number 2 seed, battled Brian Chasney for the C flight title. To reach the finals, unseeded Chasney defeated the number 3 seed, Bill Berault, in a close 3-2 match. Supplee's path to the finals was slightly less hazardous, as he did not have to face a seeded player throughout the tournament. The 3-1 final score does not indicate the closeness of the contest which featured long rallies with neither player establishing a commanding lead. The match was characterized by hard hitting rather than finesse, and both players admitted that it would have been difficult to maintain their stamina through a fifth game.

Unseeded Farlow Blakeslee defeated second seeded Lee Stierhoff for the D flight championship. On his way to the championship, Blakeslee defeated the both the first and third seeded players, a fact which underscores the difficulty of determining seeding as more and more players take up the game.

In the Veteran's category, Jervis Finney became the champion by defeating Peter Wolff. As they began the fifth game, each man had won two games by the score of 15-11. In the fifth game, Finney jumped to a 6-0 lead, as Wolff's concentration seemed to fail. The remainder of the game was even in scoring, but the early lead brought the victory to Finney. In the semi's, Finney beat Bob Everd by a score of 3-1, and Wolff defeated Selvin Passen 3-0.

BALTIMORE INVITATIONAL DOUBLES

It must have been a good party, for the collective memory of the 1984 Baltimore Invitational Doubles Tournament has faded completely. Some of the paperwork has survived, and it proves fairly conclusively that the BIDS tournament did in fact take place over the weekend of March 9-11. Twenty-three teams entered, and the top-seeded team of Tom Poor and Brad Desaulniers won the tournament in a three game finals match over the third seeded pair of Alan Grant and Baltimore's own Sandy Martin. The scores were 15-12, 15-7 and 15-8.

Know someone who should join MSSRA?

If you know squash players who are active in this area and who don't belong to MSSRA, please pass along the membership form below. You'll be doing a favor for them and for the Association.

MSSRA offers a special low membership rate for new members, just $20 as opposed to the regular annual rate of $30.

MSSRA members are automatically made members of the United States Squash Racquets Association and receive the USSRA newspaper, Squash News, their yearbook, and a waiver of racquet fees for USSRA tournaments.

I'd like to join the Maryland State Squash Racquets Association.
